

Rocky Mountain Golf

The additional 10% distance you'll get on your drives from the mile-high altitude will hopefully offset some of the challenge of the picturesque courses near Denver. Red Sky Golf Club features courses by Tom Fazio and Greg Norman, and just down the road, Raven Golf Club may have the best mountain course in the state. Castle Pines, a longtime PGA Tour favorite, is always a challenge, and the Arrowhead Golf Club in Littleton is routed through incredible rock outcroppings.
