

Nemacolin Woodlands

An ultimate outdoor lover's paradise, the founders of the 84 Lumber Company began developing this Five-Diamond luxury resort in southern Pennsylvania in the 1980s. With a little help from two highly challenging and picturesque courses designed by Pete Dye, Nemacolin Woodlands has evolved into one of the top luxury retreats in America. This trip has something for everyone, including quick trips into Pittsburgh to play the venerable Oakmont and neighboring Longue Vue Club—both are a must.
