

The Hamptons/Long Island

New York has long been known for its classic golf courses, incredible turn-of-the-20th-century masterpieces by some of golf course architecture's original masters. The Black Course at Bethpage State Park has hosted numerous majors since a complete renovation in 1997, including a high-profile U.S. Open victory by Tiger Woods. Shinnecock Hills has hosted numerous U.S. Opens and features some of the most challenging putting surface contours on the planet. Friar's Head, Maidstone, Fisher's Island, and C.B. McDonald's incredible National Golf Links of America are just the top portion of a long list of great golf destinations.
